Dear Sir, I have the honore to inform you that the parts of your work which our committee might suppress, are now indicated by red lines. I believe no alterations in the essential parts are proposed. If you assent to these suppressions, then your manuscript may be printed. You will oblige me by telling me where you wish to have sent your work, whether anywhere in France or to Amsterdam, where it will be at your disposal in the building of the Academy. (Trippenhuus, Kloveniersburgwal). I am, Dear Sir, yours respectfully
A. Kluyver.
