RECEIVED

Sir

I hope you will excuse my protracted silence after your letter of Nov^r. 21 came here when you shall have received N^o. 16 of the Souletin Prône which I send to your address by this post. I beg you to inform me of its safe arrival in your hands.

Should you have any duplicate rare basque works not in my collection we might effect some exchanges; but I should be in London for that purpose & I rarely cross the Channel.

The prône was printed during my absence in Paris & contains a few misprints for which I beg you not to hold me responsible.

I remain truly yours
